

GET READY TO FILL YOUR SILO.

We are prepared to equip you with everything necessary, including the Silo. A Blizzard Ensilage Cutter and a Fairbanks-Morse type "Z" Engine makes a combination that will please you. Place your order early.

THE JORDAN HARDWARE CO.
Tel. 700. 670 Main Street, Willimantic, Conn.

JEWETT CITY

The teachers who will be on duty at the beginning of the fall term at River-side grammar school are: F. H. P. Conant, principal; Nettie M. Johnson, Alice A. Brown, Mabelle L. Scott, S. Nettie Johnson, Edith M. Soule, Sybil Brown, Juliette Richmond, Alice Barnett, Katherine T. McNamara, Annie Driscoll, Mary R. Driscoll, K. Marguerite Bliss, Clara Moran, Edna Hamann, Margaret L. Daley, Gladys Holmes, Elizabeth R. Hodgkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wilbur and son Ralph are registered at the Worcester house, Quinebaug, for the week. John Driscoll was a recent business visitor in Meriden. While there he met Harry E. Boye, who 20 years ago was a resident of Jewett City.

Miss Julia Young, Miss Lovela Lord and Miss Isabel Marshall, who attended the summer normal school held at New Haven, passed all the required examinations. Painting, papering, whitewashing, prompt attention, Harry Hower, Jewett City. Tel. 11-3—adv.

A considerable number of Jewett City people learn with no little regret that the Providence and Danielson trolley line will be discontinued indefinitely the 1st of September. There are two reasons—first, when in Providence the last train for Jewett City, except Saturday and Sunday, leaves at 3:30 p. m., which, in the early morning, there always remained the trolley line, where one could leave as late as 9 p. m., daylight time. The other reason is that many from here take the trip to Providence in summer by trolley purely for pleasure.

A party of Jewett City people who called Point Judith Sunday was much interested in the life saving station and the great lighthouse, with its powerful lamp with lenses, among the most costly on the coast. No little attention was directed to the station.

After you eat—always use EATONIC FOR YOUR STOMACH'S SAKE.

One or two tablets—eat like candy. Instantly relieves heartburn, bloated feeling, Stomach indigestion, souring, repeating, headache and all other ailments caused by Acid-Stomach EATONIC is the best remedy. It takes away the harmful acids and gases right out of the body and, of course, you get well. Tens of thousands wonderfully benefited. Guaranteed to satisfy or money refunded by your own druggist. Cost a trifle. Please try it!

Killorey Bros. FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
66 Union St. Willimantic, Conn. Phone 290 (Ladies Assistant)

JAY M. SHEPARD Succeeding Filmore & Shepard
Funeral Director & Embalmer
60-62 NORTH ST., WILLIMANTIC
Ladies Assistant Tel. connection

Dr. F. C. Jackson DENTIST
715 Main Street, Willimantic
Hours—9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Phone 44

MURRAY'S BOSTON STORE Willimantic, Conn.
$3.69 TO $4.00 BLOUSES NOW $2.98

Scores of tempting values will be found in our Blouse Section. Some of the materials include Pongee Silk, Striped Silk and Georgette, in a wide choice of good styles. An unusual opportunity to provide yourself for your vacation, as these Blouses are just what you need for boating, tennis or any other outdoor sports—regular $3.69 and $4.00 value—

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.
NOW $2.98

Winsted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

WILLIMANTIC

What is going on tonight? Obvolut Lodge No. 15, I. O. O. F. meets at 807 Main street. Trinity Chapter No. 9, R. A. M. stated convocation at Masonic Hall.

Frederick and Jennie Ellis Brewster, both of Lebanon, will appear before Justice William Curry of Lebanon this (Thursday) morning, charged with adultery and cohabitation. The couple were brought to the police station in this city Wednesday night by County Detective William E. Jackson after a 225-mile trip from Lebanon, N. Y., to this city. They were locked up to await their appearance in Lebanon this morning.

Prize and Mrs. Brewster left Lebanon on Feb. 25 of the current year. Mrs. Brewster, taking with her a son of 11 years and a baby of only a few months, leaving her husband, William Brewster, to take care of the three remaining children, the oldest of which is a boy of 12 years, following their disappearance from Lebanon little was heard about them until Detective Jackson learned that the couple were living together in Somers, N. Y.

Detective Jackson left this city early this week for that city and made the arrest. But what was the great "Keep Off" photograph home scheme for warning vessels during a fog at this, one of the most dangerous points on the Atlantic coast? When the fog came down, this great device is put in operation, and for miles around, on sea and land, harbor lights and foghorns sound their warning, shouting in tones of deepest thunder, "Keep Off! Keep Off!" To say that it is a weird sound in the dead of night, in an impenetrable fog, to hear this great machine, is expressing matters mildly. The bleaching bulk of an ill-starred vessel which he near the lighthouse were also of much interest, mainly because all the members of the party are acquainted with Captain Colver, formerly of Jewett City. His vessel, one stormy night some years ago, was wrecked on this point and was a total loss. From being master and owner of a fine vessel, the captain said all he owned when that night was passed was the sea boots and others he stood up in.

Local potato raisers are greeting folks with a smile. Potato bugs have practically disappeared and there is no indication of the dry blight noted in nearby localities and no sign of the green aphids that did such damage here three years ago. At that time there was considerable trouble with a wet blight, with an accompanying blight of the potato roots, which was able when approaching a field which lay down the wind.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Masse of East Main street are away on a week's automobile trip through New England. The former is accompanied by his brother, Rev. Father Masse of Hartford.

A Jewett City man played from a catnap free in his yard Wednesday a catnap bean 29 inches long.

A swimming contest at Nantuxet Beach, R. I., last week the prize was taken by Miss Helen Swift, daughter of Arthur R. Swift, formerly of Jewett City. She swam the 100 yard race in 1:45, the length of the turnout, on the side toward the highway. It is one of the very few patches of orange butterfly weed to be seen in this section; whereas this beautiful flower used to be common. It is now reckoned scarce. Few native plants are more satisfying to the color-craving eye. The vivid colors of this specimen at Shetucket farm from the lot where it grows. It is the progeny of a native plant, the tuberous, of the botany, and belongs to the humble milkweed family. Generations ago believed that its juice was a cure for the dreaded disease of leprosy. The plant is used for food; they prepared a crude sugar from its flowers and ate the young seed pods with buffalo meat. Miss Dana says "Oddly enough, at the Centennial celebration much attention was attracted by a bed of these beautiful plants which were brought from Holland. Truly, flowers like prophesy are not without honor save in their own country."

LYME
Rev. Sherrod Soule of Hartford preached at the Hamburg church Sunday last at the Federation of Churches. Rev. Shorter of New Haven will preach Sunday, Aug. 15th.

Mrs. Lynne Harding returned from the seashore Sunday.

Little Arlene Pearson was given a birthday party last Sunday afternoon.

The Ladies Aid society gave Mrs. Lodwick Bill a birthday surprise at the meeting last week. A large attendance of members and their friends enjoyed a delicious dinner, with ice cream and lemonade. This was followed by words of greeting by E. S. Fly as toastmaster, greetings from the L. B. S. by the president, Mrs. Irvine, from the church by Judge Martin, from the church by Mrs. Daniels, the library, Mr. Irvine, the teachers of the public schools, Miss Ina Peck, from the children who use the library, Miss Eva Hall, a large birthday cake and many other remembrances were among the evidences of friendship.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reynolds of New London visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Reynolds, Sunday last.

James Graham of New York is the guest of J. E. Bennett.

Miss Mary O'Brien of New Britain is visiting Mrs. J. W. Martin.

Winsted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

WILLIMANTIC

What is going on tonight? Obvolut Lodge No. 15, I. O. O. F. meets at 807 Main street. Trinity Chapter No. 9, R. A. M. stated convocation at Masonic Hall.

Frederick and Jennie Ellis Brewster, both of Lebanon, will appear before Justice William Curry of Lebanon this (Thursday) morning, charged with adultery and cohabitation. The couple were brought to the police station in this city Wednesday night by County Detective William E. Jackson after a 225-mile trip from Lebanon, N. Y., to this city. They were locked up to await their appearance in Lebanon this morning.

Prize and Mrs. Brewster left Lebanon on Feb. 25 of the current year. Mrs. Brewster, taking with her a son of 11 years and a baby of only a few months, leaving her husband, William Brewster, to take care of the three remaining children, the oldest of which is a boy of 12 years, following their disappearance from Lebanon little was heard about them until Detective Jackson learned that the couple were living together in Somers, N. Y.

Detective Jackson left this city early this week for that city and made the arrest. But what was the great "Keep Off" photograph home scheme for warning vessels during a fog at this, one of the most dangerous points on the Atlantic coast? When the fog came down, this great device is put in operation, and for miles around, on sea and land, harbor lights and foghorns sound their warning, shouting in tones of deepest thunder, "Keep Off! Keep Off!" To say that it is a weird sound in the dead of night, in an impenetrable fog, to hear this great machine, is expressing matters mildly. The bleaching bulk of an ill-starred vessel which he near the lighthouse were also of much interest, mainly because all the members of the party are acquainted with Captain Colver, formerly of Jewett City. His vessel, one stormy night some years ago, was wrecked on this point and was a total loss. From being master and owner of a fine vessel, the captain said all he owned when that night was passed was the sea boots and others he stood up in.

Local potato raisers are greeting folks with a smile. Potato bugs have practically disappeared and there is no indication of the dry blight noted in nearby localities and no sign of the green aphids that did such damage here three years ago. At that time there was considerable trouble with a wet blight, with an accompanying blight of the potato roots, which was able when approaching a field which lay down the wind.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Masse of East Main street are away on a week's automobile trip through New England. The former is accompanied by his brother, Rev. Father Masse of Hartford.

A Jewett City man played from a catnap free in his yard Wednesday a catnap bean 29 inches long.

A swimming contest at Nantuxet Beach, R. I., last week the prize was taken by Miss Helen Swift, daughter of Arthur R. Swift, formerly of Jewett City. She swam the 100 yard race in 1:45, the length of the turnout, on the side toward the highway. It is one of the very few patches of orange butterfly weed to be seen in this section; whereas this beautiful flower used to be common. It is now reckoned scarce. Few native plants are more satisfying to the color-craving eye. The vivid colors of this specimen at Shetucket farm from the lot where it grows. It is the progeny of a native plant, the tuberous, of the botany, and belongs to the humble milkweed family. Generations ago believed that its juice was a cure for the dreaded disease of leprosy. The plant is used for food; they prepared a crude sugar from its flowers and ate the young seed pods with buffalo meat. Miss Dana says "Oddly enough, at the Centennial celebration much attention was attracted by a bed of these beautiful plants which were brought from Holland. Truly, flowers like prophesy are not without honor save in their own country."

LYME
Rev. Sherrod Soule of Hartford preached at the Hamburg church Sunday last at the Federation of Churches. Rev. Shorter of New Haven will preach Sunday, Aug. 15th.

Mrs. Lynne Harding returned from the seashore Sunday.

Little Arlene Pearson was given a birthday party last Sunday afternoon.

The Ladies Aid society gave Mrs. Lodwick Bill a birthday surprise at the meeting last week. A large attendance of members and their friends enjoyed a delicious dinner, with ice cream and lemonade. This was followed by words of greeting by E. S. Fly as toastmaster, greetings from the L. B. S. by the president, Mrs. Irvine, from the church by Judge Martin, from the church by Mrs. Daniels, the library, Mr. Irvine, the teachers of the public schools, Miss Ina Peck, from the children who use the library, Miss Eva Hall, a large birthday cake and many other remembrances were among the evidences of friendship.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reynolds of New London visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Reynolds, Sunday last.

James Graham of New York is the guest of J. E. Bennett.

Miss Mary O'Brien of New Britain is visiting Mrs. J. W. Martin.

Winsted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

WILLIMANTIC

What is going on tonight? Obvolut Lodge No. 15, I. O. O. F. meets at 807 Main street. Trinity Chapter No. 9, R. A. M. stated convocation at Masonic Hall.

Frederick and Jennie Ellis Brewster, both of Lebanon, will appear before Justice William Curry of Lebanon this (Thursday) morning, charged with adultery and cohabitation. The couple were brought to the police station in this city Wednesday night by County Detective William E. Jackson after a 225-mile trip from Lebanon, N. Y., to this city. They were locked up to await their appearance in Lebanon this morning.

Prize and Mrs. Brewster left Lebanon on Feb. 25 of the current year. Mrs. Brewster, taking with her a son of 11 years and a baby of only a few months, leaving her husband, William Brewster, to take care of the three remaining children, the oldest of which is a boy of 12 years, following their disappearance from Lebanon little was heard about them until Detective Jackson learned that the couple were living together in Somers, N. Y.

Detective Jackson left this city early this week for that city and made the arrest. But what was the great "Keep Off" photograph home scheme for warning vessels during a fog at this, one of the most dangerous points on the Atlantic coast? When the fog came down, this great device is put in operation, and for miles around, on sea and land, harbor lights and foghorns sound their warning, shouting in tones of deepest thunder, "Keep Off! Keep Off!" To say that it is a weird sound in the dead of night, in an impenetrable fog, to hear this great machine, is expressing matters mildly. The bleaching bulk of an ill-starred vessel which he near the lighthouse were also of much interest, mainly because all the members of the party are acquainted with Captain Colver, formerly of Jewett City. His vessel, one stormy night some years ago, was wrecked on this point and was a total loss. From being master and owner of a fine vessel, the captain said all he owned when that night was passed was the sea boots and others he stood up in.

Local potato raisers are greeting folks with a smile. Potato bugs have practically disappeared and there is no indication of the dry blight noted in nearby localities and no sign of the green aphids that did such damage here three years ago. At that time there was considerable trouble with a wet blight, with an accompanying blight of the potato roots, which was able when approaching a field which lay down the wind.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Masse of East Main street are away on a week's automobile trip through New England. The former is accompanied by his brother, Rev. Father Masse of Hartford.

A Jewett City man played from a catnap free in his yard Wednesday a catnap bean 29 inches long.

A swimming contest at Nantuxet Beach, R. I., last week the prize was taken by Miss Helen Swift, daughter of Arthur R. Swift, formerly of Jewett City. She swam the 100 yard race in 1:45, the length of the turnout, on the side toward the highway. It is one of the very few patches of orange butterfly weed to be seen in this section; whereas this beautiful flower used to be common. It is now reckoned scarce. Few native plants are more satisfying to the color-craving eye. The vivid colors of this specimen at Shetucket farm from the lot where it grows. It is the progeny of a native plant, the tuberous, of the botany, and belongs to the humble milkweed family. Generations ago believed that its juice was a cure for the dreaded disease of leprosy. The plant is used for food; they prepared a crude sugar from its flowers and ate the young seed pods with buffalo meat. Miss Dana says "Oddly enough, at the Centennial celebration much attention was attracted by a bed of these beautiful plants which were brought from Holland. Truly, flowers like prophesy are not without honor save in their own country."

LYME
Rev. Sherrod Soule of Hartford preached at the Hamburg church Sunday last at the Federation of Churches. Rev. Shorter of New Haven will preach Sunday, Aug. 15th.

Mrs. Lynne Harding returned from the seashore Sunday.

Little Arlene Pearson was given a birthday party last Sunday afternoon.

The Ladies Aid society gave Mrs. Lodwick Bill a birthday surprise at the meeting last week. A large attendance of members and their friends enjoyed a delicious dinner, with ice cream and lemonade. This was followed by words of greeting by E. S. Fly as toastmaster, greetings from the L. B. S. by the president, Mrs. Irvine, from the church by Judge Martin, from the church by Mrs. Daniels, the library, Mr. Irvine, the teachers of the public schools, Miss Ina Peck, from the children who use the library, Miss Eva Hall, a large birthday cake and many other remembrances were among the evidences of friendship.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reynolds of New London visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Reynolds, Sunday last.

James Graham of New York is the guest of J. E. Bennett.

Miss Mary O'Brien of New Britain is visiting Mrs. J. W. Martin.

Winsted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

WILLIMANTIC

What is going on tonight? Obvolut Lodge No. 15, I. O. O. F. meets at 807 Main street. Trinity Chapter No. 9, R. A. M. stated convocation at Masonic Hall.

Frederick and Jennie Ellis Brewster, both of Lebanon, will appear before Justice William Curry of Lebanon this (Thursday) morning, charged with adultery and cohabitation. The couple were brought to the police station in this city Wednesday night by County Detective William E. Jackson after a 225-mile trip from Lebanon, N. Y., to this city. They were locked up to await their appearance in Lebanon this morning.

Prize and Mrs. Brewster left Lebanon on Feb. 25 of the current year. Mrs. Brewster, taking with her a son of 11 years and a baby of only a few months, leaving her husband, William Brewster, to take care of the three remaining children, the oldest of which is a boy of 12 years, following their disappearance from Lebanon little was heard about them until Detective Jackson learned that the couple were living together in Somers, N. Y.

Detective Jackson left this city early this week for that city and made the arrest. But what was the great "Keep Off" photograph home scheme for warning vessels during a fog at this, one of the most dangerous points on the Atlantic coast? When the fog came down, this great device is put in operation, and for miles around, on sea and land, harbor lights and foghorns sound their warning, shouting in tones of deepest thunder, "Keep Off! Keep Off!" To say that it is a weird sound in the dead of night, in an impenetrable fog, to hear this great machine, is expressing matters mildly. The bleaching bulk of an ill-starred vessel which he near the lighthouse were also of much interest, mainly because all the members of the party are acquainted with Captain Colver, formerly of Jewett City. His vessel, one stormy night some years ago, was wrecked on this point and was a total loss. From being master and owner of a fine vessel, the captain said all he owned when that night was passed was the sea boots and others he stood up in.

Local potato raisers are greeting folks with a smile. Potato bugs have practically disappeared and there is no indication of the dry blight noted in nearby localities and no sign of the green aphids that did such damage here three years ago. At that time there was considerable trouble with a wet blight, with an accompanying blight of the potato roots, which was able when approaching a field which lay down the wind.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Masse of East Main street are away on a week's automobile trip through New England. The former is accompanied by his brother, Rev. Father Masse of Hartford.

A Jewett City man played from a catnap free in his yard Wednesday a catnap bean 29 inches long.

A swimming contest at Nantuxet Beach, R. I., last week the prize was taken by Miss Helen Swift, daughter of Arthur R. Swift, formerly of Jewett City. She swam the 100 yard race in 1:45, the length of the turnout, on the side toward the highway. It is one of the very few patches of orange butterfly weed to be seen in this section; whereas this beautiful flower used to be common. It is now reckoned scarce. Few native plants are more satisfying to the color-craving eye. The vivid colors of this specimen at Shetucket farm from the lot where it grows. It is the progeny of a native plant, the tuberous, of the botany, and belongs to the humble milkweed family. Generations ago believed that its juice was a cure for the dreaded disease of leprosy. The plant is used for food; they prepared a crude sugar from its flowers and ate the young seed pods with buffalo meat. Miss Dana says "Oddly enough, at the Centennial celebration much attention was attracted by a bed of these beautiful plants which were brought from Holland. Truly, flowers like prophesy are not without honor save in their own country."

LYME
Rev. Sherrod Soule of Hartford preached at the Hamburg church Sunday last at the Federation of Churches. Rev. Shorter of New Haven will preach Sunday, Aug. 15th.

Mrs. Lynne Harding returned from the seashore Sunday.

Little Arlene Pearson was given a birthday party last Sunday afternoon.

The Ladies Aid society gave Mrs. Lodwick Bill a birthday surprise at the meeting last week. A large attendance of members and their friends enjoyed a delicious dinner, with ice cream and lemonade. This was followed by words of greeting by E. S. Fly as toastmaster, greetings from the L. B. S. by the president, Mrs. Irvine, from the church by Judge Martin, from the church by Mrs. Daniels, the library, Mr. Irvine, the teachers of the public schools, Miss Ina Peck, from the children who use the library, Miss Eva Hall, a large birthday cake and many other remembrances were among the evidences of friendship.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reynolds of New London visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Reynolds, Sunday last.

James Graham of New York is the guest of J. E. Bennett.

Miss Mary O'Brien of New Britain is visiting Mrs. J. W. Martin.

Winsted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

Wanted.—Louis T. Stone of Winsted, the Baron Munchausen of this section, is now engaged upon a volume of "Winsted Fables."

WILLIMANTIC

What is going on tonight? Obvolut Lodge No. 15, I. O. O. F. meets at 807 Main street. Trinity Chapter No. 9, R. A. M. stated convocation at Masonic Hall.

Frederick and Jennie Ellis Brewster, both of Lebanon, will appear before Justice William Curry of Lebanon this (Thursday) morning, charged with adultery and cohabitation. The couple were brought to the police station in this city Wednesday night by County Detective William E. Jackson after a 225-mile trip from Lebanon, N. Y., to this city. They were locked up to await their appearance in Lebanon this morning.

Prize and Mrs. Brewster left Lebanon on Feb. 25 of the current year. Mrs. Brewster, taking with her a son of 11 years and a baby of only a few months, leaving her husband, William Brewster, to take care of the three remaining children, the oldest of which is a boy of 12 years, following their disappearance from Lebanon little was heard about them until Detective Jackson learned that the couple were living together in Somers, N. Y.

Detective Jackson left this city early this week for that city and made the arrest. But what was the great "Keep Off" photograph home scheme for warning vessels during a fog at this, one of the most dangerous points on the Atlantic coast? When the fog came down, this great device is put in operation, and for miles around, on sea and land, harbor lights and foghorns sound their warning, shouting in tones of deepest thunder, "Keep Off! Keep Off!" To say that it is a weird sound in the dead of night, in an impenetrable fog, to hear this great machine, is expressing matters mildly. The bleaching bulk of an ill-starred vessel which he near the lighthouse were also of much interest, mainly because all the members of the party are acquainted with Captain Colver, formerly of Jewett City. His vessel, one stormy night some years ago, was wrecked on this point and was a total loss. From being master and owner of a fine vessel